BETH AMI CONGREGATION

The Dottie & Stan Pierce

Sunday Speaker Series

Programs start at 2 PM. Coffee, cold drinks and snacks will be served.

The charge is $10 per event or $60 for the entire series of 7.

Oct. 18 - Michael Brodie "If I Were a Rich Man"

A historical, cultural, social, and religious analysis of Fidler On The Roof

Nov. 29 - Stephen Singer

"Did The Jews Steal Palestine?" Most "Palestinians" are conceded to be Arabs. The current issue is whether they or the Israeli's have a sounder claim to the land. Stephen will clarify this for us.

Dec. 27 - Ellen Brazer "She Came to Listen"

Each of her six books began with something she wanted to understand. In this personal and engaging talk, Ellen will share the stories behind her books.

A free, signed copy of her latest book will be given to each participant

Jan. 3 - Riva Ginsberg "People of The Joke"

A window into Jewish wisdom & values. Come laugh a little and explore Jewish Humor

Feb. 28 - Sharon Harris "A Day In Cassablanca"

In 1942, the the cynical, Rick Blaine. Warner Brothers produced one of Hollywood's most iconic films. This program uses photos and film clips to give context to the plot and final scenes.

March 14 - Dr. Stan Pierce " Jewish Music-But Not Klezmer"

Jews are composers, conductors performers, so let's look at a few of them.

May 2 - Mike Wasserman "The Balfour Declaration"

An overview of the role of the Balfour Declaration in the formation of the State of Israel